Laika & Tavo together for the safety of our four-legged friends

San Casciano in Val di Pesa, July 2024

- More safety and comfort on the road for your pets
- Tavo makes pet carriers with Isofix connection
- The carrier will be displayed on the Kreos H 5109 at the Caravan Salon in Düsseldorf

Laika cares about animals and aims to make every step of the journey perfect for holiday makers and their four-legged friends.

One of the key concepts for Laika is to secure comfortable and safe journeys with your nearest and dearest and – of course – this includes pets.

To make travelling with animals easier, Laika has teamed up with Tavo¹, and is setting a new safety standard for enjoying road trips for everyone.

Visitors to the Caravan Salon in Düsseldorf can take a closer look at Tavo's "Maeve" pet carrier, a high-quality car seat paired with a support leg that absorbs shocks when travelling, inside the Kreos Motorhome H 5109.

The support leg specifically attaches to the Isofix system of the motorhome, connecting the front of the base to the bottom of the vehicle. This simple and safe installation takes the adventures of your pet inside and outside the motorhome and to the next level.

Enjoy the Dolce Vita.

¹ Who is Tavo and why has Laika chosen to support this theme?

Tavo is an animal protection systems manufacturer known to combine elegance and innovation with safety, making high-quality, technologically advanced products that make animals feel safe, protecting them from accidents and collisions.

Laika has chosen to team up with Tavo to raise awareness of animal safety on the road, providing the tranquillity, comfort and safety that they deserve.

This is a way to make pets feel at home and lessens travel anxiety for owners who are confident that their four-legged friends are comfortable and secure aboard a Laika motorhome.
